NEW EDITIONS! FULL-COLOR

Originally commissioned for New York City schools, A World of Communities from Blackbirch Press® meets curriculum standards in world history, geography and economics for grades 3-5 in New York and many other states. This set includes a Student Edition, a Student Activity Book and a Teacher Guide.

With chapters taking readers from England and South Africa to Puerto Rico and Turkey, these engaging volumes integrate skill-building elements in map reading and geographical literacy, and interpretation of visual information.

Students also gain an understanding and appreciation for literature while teachers may enhance their multicultural and tolerance lessons as well as history and reading strategies.

Key themes and concepts include:

- Understanding the physical world around us
- Understanding the relationship between topography and how people live and work
- Understanding what a community is and how it functions
- Understanding and appreciating different communities
- Understanding and appreciating different cultures
- Understanding and appreciating individuals as part of a larger culture
- Comparing other cultures and communities to one's own
